

Focus on Finance

A two-day personal finance training for secondary educators

Hosted by the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis—Memphis Branch

April 2-3, 2009 | 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

April 2 | Focus on Income, Spending and Credit

April 3 | Focus on Money Management, Saving and Investing

Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis—Memphis Branch • 200 North Main St. • Memphis, Tenn. 38103

Details: This two-day Focus on Finance training workshop is designed to provide secondary educators with the latest information about financial literacy. Learn how to teach your students to apply their knowledge using real-world scenarios based on national financial literacy standards. Attendees will receive free lesson plans, resources and curriculum materials that are aligned with national standards and include effective instructional methods and strategies.

Certificates of attendance will be available at the conclusion of the training. Attendance at both days of the workshop will meet the necessary training requirement for teaching personal finance in the state of Tennessee.

Information and registration: Educators in West Tennessee, North Mississippi and Eastern Arkansas are invited to attend this conference free of charge. Each attendee may choose to attend one or both days of the conference. Continental breakfast, lunch and materials are provided each day.

There is no fee, but registration is required.

Register online at www.stlouisfed.org/education/conferences. Enrollment is limited to the first 35 who register.
