

December 16, 2024

Yu-Ting Chiang

Economist

Joined the Bank June 2021

Education

2021 Ph.D., Department of Economics and Booth School of Business,
University of Chicago

2014 B.B.A., National Taiwan University

Areas of Interest Macroeconomics, Financial Economics, Information Economics

Working Papers

“Nominal Maturity Mismatch and the Liquidity Cost of Inflation” with Ezra Karger, Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis Working Paper 2024-031, Sep 2024

“Financial Intermediation and Aggregate Demand: A Sufficient Statistics Approach” with Piotr Zoch, Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis Working Paper 2022-038B, November 2022

“Attention and Fluctuations in Macroeconomic Uncertainty”, Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis Working Paper 2022-004B, March 2022

Articles in Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis Publications

Yu-Ting Chiang, Ezra Karger and Jesse LaBelle, "Treasury Debt and Inflation Tax," Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis Review, Fourth Quarter 2024, Vol. 106, No. 09, pp. 1-11.