

The Entrepreneurial Spirit in the Central City

September 28, 2005

One Financial Plaza

St. Louis, Missouri

Agenda

- 1:30 p.m. Registration, networking reception, resource tables
Founders Hall
- 2:00 p.m. Welcome
Tiered Classroom
Glenda Wilson, Assistant Vice President and Community Affairs Officer
Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis
- 2:10 p.m. “The Four Secret Numbers for Entrepreneurship in St. Louis”
Jerome Katz, Ph.D.
Coleman Foundation Chair in Entrepreneurship
Director, Entrepreneurship Program
John Cook School of Business
Saint Louis University
- 3:00 p.m. Panel Discussion
Moderator – Chris Dornfeld, Entrepreneurship Collaboration Director
Skandalaris Center for Entrepreneurial Studies
Olin School of Business
Washington University in St. Louis
- Panelists:
Netria Hall, Program Specialist, YWCA of Metropolitan St. Louis
Kendra Martin, Director, Grace Hill Women’s Business Development Center
Jerry Schlichter, Managing Partner, Schlichter, Bogard and Denton
Kevin Schulte, Director, Smurfit-Stone Center for Entrepreneurship
Lynette Sledge-Watson, Director, Cherokee Retail Business Incubator
Betsy Slosar, Vice President, International Institute St. Louis
Joe Stock, Loan Officer, Resources for Missouri, Inc.
Kevin Wilson, Director, Greater St. Louis Regional Empowerment Zone, Small Business Development Center
- 4:15 p.m. Adjourn