

Law and the Economy Draft* Agenda
July 14 and 15, 2015

Day 1

At Thomas F. Eagleton Courthouse (morning session)

1. U.S. bankruptcy law and the role of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court
2. Property rights in the U.S. Constitution and the role of the U.S. Courts in dispute resolution
  - a. Fifth Amendment (takings clause, eminent domain)
  - b. Article I (copyright clause, intellectual property)
3. Resource overview/lunch

At Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis (afternoon session)

1. Legal history of the Federal Reserve and its changing roles--with card sort activity
2. Economic development and the rule of law
3. Property rights in a market economy activity

Day 2

At Thomas F. Eagleton Courthouse (morning session)

1. Judicial Learning Center exploration
2. Courtroom observation, judge chat on independence of the judiciary and rule of law
3. Federal financial crimes, including a U.S. magistrate judge and representatives from the U.S. Secret Service and the U.S. Attorney's Office Financial Crimes Unit

At Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis (afternoon session)

1. Review of free Econlowdown education resources/lunch
2. "Constitutionality of a Central Bank" lesson demonstration
3. Future of the Federal Reserve
4. Museum tour

*As this is a draft agenda, program content and sequence are subject to change.

Register by July 7th to ensure your attendance.

Parking and lunch provided each day at no charge to participants.